American journals filed for any length of time are the leading Democratic papers from 1895 to 1860. What a comment must their pages present on the present shocking state of affairs—and what warnings must they contain against the sectional sime which has at last grown strong enough to produce this fearful calamity.

WHEREABOUTS OF THE SECOND KENTUCKY REGIMENT.—A lady correspondent wishes to know at what point the Second Regiment of Kentucky troops are stained. They are, and have been for some time, located in the vicinity of Gauley Bridge, near the base of the mountains in Western Virginia. Those persons in this city who have friends in the regiment with whom they wish to communicate may gratify that wish by leaving letters at this office on or before Saturday next. Letters addressed to Point Pleasant, Va., will reach the regiment.

THE BATTLE NEAR SPRINGFIELD -The St. Radway's Ready Relief. INFORMATION FOR THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

> Testimony of Field Officers, Company Officers and entire Regiments in favor of the GREAT PREVENTIVE AND RESTORATIVE.

We propose to offer, in a few brief paragraphs, suc proofs of the efficacy of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF as a preventive of and cure for the diseases to which bodies of unacclimated men are peculiarly subject in tion of a Paternal Government anxious to protect the health and lives of the tens of thousands of brave and patriotic citizens who have left and are daily leaving their homes, their families, and their business to fight

According to the testimony of eminent military men, of army surgeons of high standing in the profession, and thousands of private soldiers, RADWAY'S READY RELIEF has already been of immense benefit to the sick among our gallant volunteer soldiery in CAMP, IN THE BIVOUAC, AND ON THE MARCH. The subjoined summary of facts, which we respectfully invite the Government to verify by application to the parties named, includes but a small portion of the voluminous testimony to the same effect received by us within a few weeks from various headquarters of regiments and detachments in the service of the United States:

TESTIMONIAL NO. 1.

From the Ninth Regiment N. Y. Volunteers (Zouaves).
Col. Bush Hawkins, of this regiment (new quartered at Newport News), writes us bestowing the strongest encomiums on the Relief, and recommending it, from the xperience of himself and officers, as "a most valuab addition to the army medicine chest.' TESTIMONIAL NO. 2.

Major Linelli, Garibaldi Guard, pronounces the Ra LIEF an "excellent medicine" for the army. TESTIMONIAL NO. 3. Col. George Lyons, of the Eighth Regiment N. Y. S.

M., all his officers, and 300 privates, endorse the Relief in the most emphatic terms, and suggest its immediate introduction into the medical stores of every branch TESTIMONIAL NO. 4. Surgeon E. K. Rousseau, who has command of the and it is to be heped that its career will be brief. Kentucky Brigade at Camp Jo. Holt. The Spirit of Seventy-Six very truly says that Gen. Rousseau is a worthy example for those sycophants in the North who are using all their efforts to prostrate the hopes of patriots and stifle the energies of the Administration, now struggling to maintain our Government and preserve our country from ruin and disgrace. There is something noble and gratifying in the bold and earless manner in which Gen. Rousseau stepped forth from the neutrality of Kentucky to respond to the call of that Government to which he owes his first allegiance. Who can help but admire the man whose duty prompted him to leave his native State, where all that is dear to him remains, and throw up a lucrative and enviable position to take the task of raising such an army as now occupies Camp Jo. Holt? With all the bitter execrations of secessionists, and even threats of personal danger, he marked out his path, and proudly bid defiance to his enemies and the fees of his Government. He has had many obstacles to surmount, and has passed through many trying ordeals since he embarked in the noble project now completed, but his herculean efforts are warmly appreciated. Association upon the payment of the sum of $10. but his herculean efforts are warmly appreciated, and no man enjoys more of the confidence and affection of the people of Indiana and Kentucky than Gen. With that energy which has ever been one of his characteristics, he has fought and baffled every obstacle that obstructed his path until he has accomplished his noble and praiseworthy undertaking. We fee proud of Gen. Rousseau, as one whom nearly all our citizens have known for years. He has long held a high place in their esteem as a man possessing great nobility of character, generous devotion to his friends, geniality of temper, and wholesouled disposition. The talents and acquirements of the General admirably qualify him for a high military position. He has a bright future before him, and we feel that the trust re posed in him by his government will be safely guarded, and his duty performed with honor and glory to himself as well as his native State. Such patriots as Rousseau, Holt, Johnson, and Dix will never pass from the remembrance of a

Make the comparison and you will find it so.

The secessionists here have all at once become the peace party. In May they were for making common cause with the rebellion and denounced neutrality. They were then clamorous for war. In fine, they changed their tactics and became equally clamorous for neutrality—a technical neutrality—that would make Kentucky independent of both the sational and the rebel governments. Just before the August election they beprivileges attached to their calling; and, whereas, the present condition of political affairs—the ruthless attempt of the North to subjugate the South—the deadly hostility and the barbaric cru-elty exhibited by the hirelings in their efforts to accomplish that object, would seem to compel the citizens of the South to retort upon their enemies and forever to deny to them, in this section, the privileges which they enjoyed previous to the election of a Black Republican President, whose ments. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

The Contraband Question.

Gentlemen: I from day to day observe in the columns of your most useful journal sundry letters from dissatisfied persons in regard to the shipment of goods which are supposed to find their way into the seceded States. One of the certainly performing the very trying duties devolved upon him with a discretion which could not well be improved upon.

Your correspondent surely does not reflect upon the very great difficulties which lie in the way of effectually suppressing all smuggling by wagons across the country. Nothing short of an army of mounted and armed patrolers, passing to and frocross the country, searching the passing vehicles, could effectually put a stop to the wagon business. Such a patrol and inquisition to which the people of Kentucky are so little used would produce facely and the country would not injure our Virginia operations.

The contract and dive them off. Beaufort District, opposite to Savannah, has several fine ports and inlets, navigable for large vessels, wholly unprotected. See United States Coast Survey. This District has five black to one white inhabitant. Several inlets on our coast, which our enemies know like a book, from surveys in their possession, are equally unprotected.

2 In two months more they will not fear our climate. By that time they might be ready to make a sudden descent and find us unprepared.

3 A small force might eject them, if ready to go at once; when, if we have to wait, a much larger one will become necessary.

4 By organizing and drilling infantry and querillas at home, there will be no need to cill upon the President for troops, and a feint from the enemy would not injure our Virginia operations.

THE LAW OF BLOCKADE.-The New York World discusses the question relating to the of Adath Israel, the following preamble and reso- blockade and neutrality, and settles it very satisfactorily. We condense its argument: The law of blockade, it says, relates only to two independent nations at war with one another and nations at peace with both the belligerents, and is inapplicable to a recognized nation when a portion of its territory or people are in a state of revolt against its authority.

The public journals seem to consider it as matter of right for England or France to enter and trade with any of the Southern ports within the States in revolt, provided they can steal in or the blockade be inefficient.

As a matter of sovereign right the governmen dive the interest in this institution, and hope the deachers will second our effort in future as they ports to the trade of foreign nations as she deems Resolved, That these resolutions shall be spread for her interest, and keep as many closed, and no other nationality has a right to question her con-

> As it is now understood, the ports of all the re volted States are closed, and are no longer port of entry of the United States. These ports are then, in the same condition as other ports unrecognized by law in the States which have not evolted.

Supposing Congress had included, in the law losing the Southern ports, all the ports of Maschusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine, could England and France claim that, unless an effective blockade was maintained as to them, their rade could not be prohibited, and that States at peace should be treated as belligerents?

Every independent nation has an unrestricted ight to institute its own revenue laws, and for that purpose may open such ports of its own to foreign or domestic trade as it may think its interests require, and any violation of its regulations, either by its own citizens or these of foreign nations, by introducing goods and opening and carrying on trade with unauthorized ports or territories, is smuggling, and may be punished as

Thus it appears that the naval force the United States has employed along the coast is not a school or a situation in a family. blockede, but a coast guard to prevent smuggling and the violation of the United States revenue laws, and to crush out Jeff Davis's accredited pi-

It is also true and it follows as a corollary from what has been said, that neither England nor France has a right, under the sanction of international law, at present to treat the government of the United States and the so-called Confederate States as bellicerents, and themselves assume the position of neutrals; and that, if either of them enter any of the prohibited ports under such pretence, they place themselves in the condition of Galt House, Louisville, Ky. a nation of smugglers, and subject this illicit commerce to the seizure and condemnation of the vessels engaged in it, with their cargoes. AN ASTONISHING DISCLOSURE JUST PUBLISHED, A Rey to the Disunion Conspiracy A Rey to the Disunion Conspiracy!

ENTITLED THE PARTISAN LEADER. A Novel.
By Beverly Tucker, of Virginia. Secretly printed by the celebrated Duff Green, at Washington, in the year 1898, for circulation in the Southern States, and among disunionists, but immediately suppressed by the enemies of the National Union.

This astonishing book, in the garb of a brilliant and fascinating work of fiction, was secretly printed in 1898, with a fictition- imprint, and date of 1898, pur porting to be an historical novel, detailing the events which had taken place during the previous twenty sears. In it are depicted, with unerring and proph-tic accuracy, the whole of the present disunion conspiracy, natrating the very event; which are this day transpiring throughout the Enited States of America.

Every friend of the Union-hould read and profit by its disclosures. The South will learn how thoroughly its inhabitants have been the dupes of a few ambitious and reckless demacogues. The amazing and monstreus conspiracy which it develops is absolutely stupefying, but the book itself carries conviction on its own face.

Two volumes in one. $3.136.
